24th Edition 2nd May 2014

Dear Parents and Friends,

Welcome back!

Quickly, the Easter holidays have become a distant memory. It was fabulous to see the children return, refreshed and ready to go.

It is a silly half term with only four weeks but they are certainly action-packed. Of course Year Six and Year Two will be completing their SATs tests. We will endeavour to keep the atmosphere as calm and relaxed as possible but would very much appreciate it if the children can have lots of sleep and a good breakfast to give them the best possible levels of concentration, during SATs week.

My thanks go to Mrs Ridyard and the Year Six children who made 'Easter School' such a huge success. The children came in for four mornings during Easter and enjoyed a range of activities to help them to prepare for their SATs tests and transition to secondary education.

Finally, we welcome Mrs Carter to the office. I know you all appreciate the enormity of the role she has taken on and she is very grateful for your patience as she learns our systems and routines.
