Notices

- THE WINNING HOUSE FOR THIS TERM IS RED HOUSE. You have a non-school uniform day on FRIDAY 5th JANUARY. Well done!
- A huge thank you to all our adult reading volunteers for coming into school each week and hearing some of our children read. It is very much appreciated and we hope to see you all again in the New Year.

What's Going On? (Please see ourschoolsapp.com for further information)

Class News		Superstars
Wrens	This week, Wrens have been getting very festive! We have been busy doing lots of Christmas crafts including making hats for our Christmas dinner, Christmas cards and decorating biscuits. In P.E. we played different games including Shark Attack and Turtle Tag to consolidate the skills we have been learning with Mr. Stephens.	Carter, Finley, Sophia
Robins	This week The Robins have been busy doing lots of Christmas craft. We have been using our knowledge of shape to make Christmas cards. In PE we have been working in teams to solve lots of challenges together.	Monty, Alfie
Woodpeckers	In English, Woodpeckers have been continuing to show what they know about the key features of instructions. In Maths, we have been practising how to find and record different measurements of length. In P.E. we have been working together in teams to play challenge and football games. We have also been creating wintery pictures in art.	Evie & Hannah
Owls	In maths we have been solving the problem of the Mince Pie Thief! We have been inspectors trying to solve clues to lead us to finding out which one of Santa's elves is the culprit!	Jesse, Finn, Seren, Hannah
Peregrines	In English we have been busy publishing our tragedy narratives and some are quite gruesome with lots of twists and turns to keep up the suspense. In Maths we have been problem solving using all four operations. During party day, Owls Class had the difficult task of judging the best Christmas decorated table in Peregrine class. The winning table was: Amelie, Chloe, Alfie, Calvert, Kames and George FK.	George FK, Henry, Barney, Fred, Oliver
